Take Flat Dill on an adventure

Flat Dill's story began in 2015, where he went from being an unwanted cucumber to finally finding his home at Design Pickle - the world's #1 flat-rate graphic design company. He was sent on a design quest in Connecticut, but in the process, was separated from his Design Pickle family! He needs your help getting back to them, and FAST!

To Help Flat Dill Get Back Home:

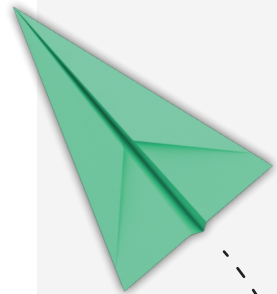

1. Make sure Flat Dill gets a good meal! Take a picture of him sharing a meal with you and your peers.
Bonus ticket if he gets a picture with one of his real-life pickle friends!
2. Help Flat Dill find a mode of transportation to get back to Design Pickle! Take a picture of him on a scooter, bike, in a cab, on a bus, flying, on a horse, or anything in between.
3. Keep Flat Dill company! Take a picture of him with at least 3 other Flat Dill friends, doing any activity.

BONUS ROUND: Post a photo with Flat Dill on any social media platform, tag Design Pickle (@designpickle), use the hashtags #IMLive19 & #FlatDillsAdventure, and receive 3 additional raffle tickets!

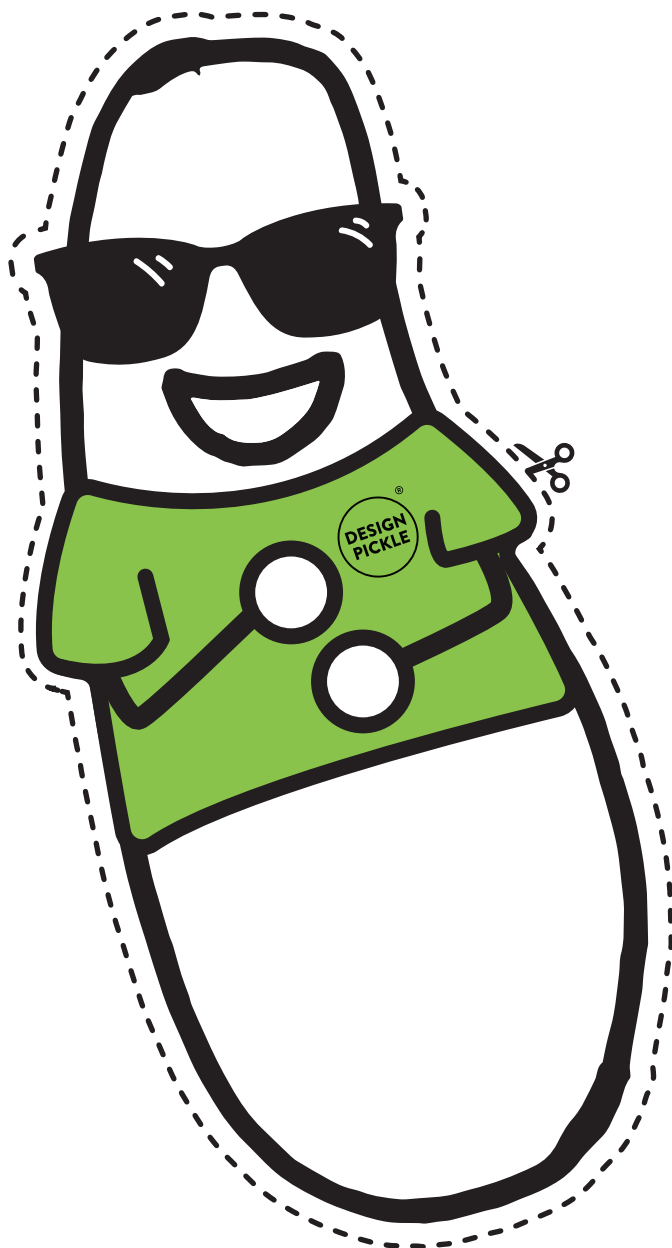

Once you complete all of the quests on Flat Dill's Adventure, bring your photos and Flat Dill to the Design Pickle booth before 2:00pm on Wednesday, August 7th to receive FIVE (or more if you completed the bonus rounds!) raffle tickets to be entered in the gift basket giveaway!

Winners will be drawn and announced at the booth at 2:45pm.

No purchase necessary; must be present to win.*
